Good Info. Beware.By Aboyade on November 17, 2011

I bought this book when I began my walk into the Ifa Tradition of Nigeria. The title it's self lends you to believe that the material covered inside will be an overview of said tradition. This however is not really the case, most of the information is inspired by the diaspora tradition of Lucumi/Santeria.

The receiving of several necklaces at once

I appreciated the comprehensive and historical view that the author gave of the Yoruba religion. I like the comparisons made to other religious concepts and views. I thought the illustrations were realistic and allowed one to grasp the essence of practice of the religion.
